Check in at the Solomon Kitano Mendana Hotel, popularly known as “the Mendana” (named after the Spanish explorer). DAY 2: Saturday or Monday

HONIARA: sightseeing tour

08:00 Your guide will meet you at the hotel reception to commence your day tour of Honiara. As you travel about the city you will be greeted by warm smiles everywhere you go. The Solomon Islanders are very pleasant and welcoming people which is why the country is nicknamed “The Happy Isles. Honiara is a safe town with a low crime rate where you will feel secure and welcome. Today you will visit an urban village where you will meet local families living together in clan groups within the town environment. Local-style food will be cooked and prepared for your lunch. In the afternoon, you’ll take a drive out the scenic west coast road which features tropical rainforest interspersed with pretty coconut plantations, stopping for a swim at one of the coral beaches and a visit to the Vilu Cultural Village which has a display of World War 2 relics.

DAY 3: Sunday or Tuesday

HONIARA: day trip options

Today a choice of activities is offered.

1) Hike to Mataniko Falls - this is a 6-hour round-trip hike following the Mataniko River upstream from Honiara. Guides will walk with you and a picnic lunch is included. The waterfall is quite large and majestic. There is a big cave at the bottom which can be explored if you take flashlights. There are stalagmites, bats and birds in the cave, which was used as a hideout by Japanese forces. The walking is challenging in the humid climate and requires reasonable physical fitness. You will first be driven half an hour from your hotel to the Tuaruhu suburb upstream and commence walking from there. Pickup at reception 07:00, dropoff 16:00.

2) East Guadalcanal battlefields excursion - this trip covers all main points of interest from the 1944 campaign including Henderson field, Hell's Point, Bloody Ridge, underground hospital, Red Beach, Koni field, Tetera Beach. As you drive along the east coast road, you may note straight sections of the road that are actually old fighter airstrip runways. Includes packed lunch. Pickup 08:00, dropoff 16:00.

3) Artifact and souvenir shopping - for those who prefer to stick closer to the hotel, this is a half-day activity that leaves you with a free afternoon to laze by the pool or sit on the little beach at the hotel, or do your own thing around town. The morning's shopping stops include the Mendana gift shop (shell jewellery and general souvenirs), central market (shell money necklaces and other crafts), DJ Graphics (souvenir T-shirts, island-style garb and local music CDs), BJS Agencies (ebony wood carvings, woven baskets) and Betikama High School (copper beatings, paintings by local artists). Your guide may know some other good shop-stops. Of course there's no obligation to buy anything... browsing is fun too. You won't see another tourist all day and shopping is a great way to rub shoulders with the locals. For lunch your guide will take you to a local café to join the workers and shoppers for a local-style lunch: Honiara-style fish and chips (garlic-infused reef fish fried in batter with sweet potato chips) or curry chicken and tropical vegetables on rice are the two most popular dishes. Lunch is included in the tour. Pickup 08:00, dropoff 13:00 (or later by arrangement).

Overnight Solomon Kitano Mendana Hotel (room only, pay as you go for meals by cash or card).

DAY 4: Monday or Wednesday HONIARA / AUKI: Langalanga Lagoon tour

Your Honiara guide will transfer you to Honiara Airport to check in for your Solomon Airlines flight to Auki (pronounced ow-kee). Our local Auki tour guide will meet you at Auki airfield and transfer you to Auki town for check in at Auki Lodge. From there you will be taken down to the waterfront to board a motorised canoe for a half day tour of the Langalanga Lagoon. You will stop off at a number of villages located on the edge of the lagoon and on the various artificial islands which have been built up over centuries by piling up lumps of coral collected from the floor of the lagoon. Visiting the artificial islands of Alite (pronounced ah-lee-tay), Busu or Laulasi (low-lahsi) you will be shown local fishing methods, inspect the ancestral skulls, see how shell money is made and learn about the pagan shark worshipping cult. At Busu Cultural Village lunch will be served and you'll be entertained by a cultural group performing what the locals call a "custom dance".

Late in the afternoon on returning to Auki Lodge, enjoy a poke around in the Chinese shops nearby. Stop and chat to locals in the street or in the shops.

Overnight Auki Lodge (room only, pay as you go for meals and drinks).

DAY 5: Tuesday or Thursday AUKI: village experience

08:00 Your local guide will meet you at the lodge reception and transfer you by private vehicle to a local village. Today you'll spend the day at a typical local village and have an opportunity to meet ordinary Malaitans and learn about their culture and lifestyle. Your host village will be either on the shore of the lagoon or a little way inland. This is a genuine in situ cultural experience and not a tourist show.

It's a lovely safe environment, with no snakes or other nasties to be worried about apart from the usual mosquitoes. With the guidance of your host family you can safely:

- paddle around in the lagoon by dugout canoe, exploring the mangrove labyrinths
- bathe in the freshwater stream
- bushwalk in the forest to see medicinal plants and bush foods, try to catch a glimpse of the frigate bird, the Malaita eagle and the wide variety of parrots
- visit the gardens to see how staple foods are cultivated and harvested
- watch how food is cooked in the smoke-house kitchen
- play soccer or volleyball with the village kids.

During the day you'll meet many of the villagers and share a little of their lives. You'll also learn about the Malaita culture, learn some pidgin and local language words. You will not be treated as royalty to be entertained but rather as a new member of the family being inducted into daily routine. After spending a day with your host family you will be able to say with confidence that you understand something of the lifestyle of Solomon Islanders living in rural villages.

Local-style food will be served for lunch, including unique local delicacies such as mangrove soup made from the grated propagules (fruit) of the large-leafed orange mangrove (Bruguiera gymnorrhiza), kata pudding made from indigenous nali nuts mashed with boiled taro and coconut cream, and takuma swamp fern cooked in coconut milk. Of course you'll also find familiar favourites such as pineapple, bananas and scones with butter and jam to wash down with a cup of tea.

Overnight Auki Lodge (room only, pay as you go for dinner, breakfast, snacks and drinks).

DAY 6: Wednesday or Friday AUKI / GIZO

Transfer by shuttle bus from Auki Lodge to Auki airfield to catch the morning or midday flight to Honiara with connecting flight to Gizo. On arrival at Gizo airfield which is located on a small island in the Gizo Lagoon, you'll be met and transferred to Sanbis Resort
